

Submitting your manuscript to MRS Advances

Go to the journal's submission website <https://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/mrsadv>.

First, create an account by clicking on the link "Create An Account" and enter your name and e-mail address. If you have previously submitted to MRS Advances, enter your User ID and Password, then click on the Author Tab.

To begin the submission process, select "Begin Submission" on the Author dashboard.

The steps for submitting a manuscript are listed on the left of the screen. At any time, you may click on "Previous Step" at the bottom of the page.

Step 1: Type, Title, & Abstract

Select the Regular Article type and Africa MRS meeting. Enter the title, abstract, presentation number, and symposium into the appropriate boxes. Click Save and Continue.

Step 2: Attributes

Select up to five keywords from the drop down menu. Click Save and Continue.

Step 3: Authors & Institutions

Enter all co-authors' information by searching for each of their email addresses. Click Save and Continue.

Step 4: Reviewers

Suggest three potential reviewers for your manuscript. Click Add New Reviewer in the pop up box, then click Save and Continue.

Step 5: Details & Comments

Upload or type your cover letter into the "Cover Letter" box. Complete all required fields marked with a * red asterisk. Indicate if there is funding to report for this submission. Confirm that the manuscript is in the final format, that all the author information is correct, and that the manuscript has been submitted solely to this journal and is not published, in press, or submitted elsewhere. Click Save and Continue.

Step 6: File Upload

Upload your manuscript and select the file designation "Main Document." For any supplemental materials, select "Supplemental Files for Review." Click Save and Continue.

Step 7: Review & Submit

Review the proof and all the manuscript details before submitting your paper. After reviewing the manuscript proofs, you must click Submit to complete your submission. You will receive an e-mail confirmation that your manuscript has been successfully submitted online. Your manuscript will be assigned to a Principal Editor who will begin the review process.

If you experience any difficulties using the submission site, please contact the MRS Advances Editorial Office mrsadvances@mrs.org.
